

00:35:39 Karen Chase: Did OCF say why not the full amount?

00:35:53 Stephen Sloan - Humane Leadership: They did not

00:35:55 Karen Chase: Have they listed out the recipients and amounts?

00:39:35 Alex: To coordinate on OCF grant asks, please contact Leigh Madsen, LTRG (Leigh lmc@ccountry.net) or me (alex.campbell@oregon.gov).

00:41:29 Alex: Here's a link to the OCF opportunity I was referring to:

00:45:20 Kathy Bryon: would the R3V planning focus deeper on the goals that were outlined earlier this year? and would this R3V planning process help us decide if we do a community member involved planning process? (such as with UDA that worked with Paradise and started with stories and healing then imagining the future of Paradise and Butte County.)

00:46:34 Kathy Bryon: Mark you have been INCREDIBLE in your service to all of us in the Rogue Valley!

00:47:40 Julie O'Dwyer - she/her: I agree with Kathy that community input is important for the strategic planning. It is important for the community to better understand what R3V is and for us to hear what is actually needed

00:48:33 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: The threads "lanes" will begin to weave!

00:57:09 Kathy Bryon: Thank you Alex for that clarification, THAT makes sense and is clearer.

00:57:39 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: I know some folks from OHA/United Way who have talked about a state wide preparedness campaign

00:58:59 Bayo, CASA of Oregon: Erica, who is OHA?

00:59:36 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: Oregon Health Authority

00:59:46 Bayo, CASA of Oregon: ah, thanks

01:02:45 Bayo, CASA of Oregon: We should do a raffle for one of those

01:03:46 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: Just wanted to share this disaster campaign that some folks have talked about bringin to Oregon or planning something similar----

01:16:07 Hannah Sohl - Rogue Climate: Are emergency alerts in Jackson County available in multiple languages?

01:17:53 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: Can you send this PowerPoint to the group?

01:18:13 Alex: Yes, we can/will send the slides.

01:19:13 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: Do we have to create an account for the citizen alert?

01:20:17 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: That might make it challenging for some folks-- tutorial or walking community thought this might be needed.

01:25:24 Dorie Lanni, OEM: I have a call and apologize that I have to leave early. Sorry to miss this part! Thanks for your time.

01:25:44 Holly Powers: Thank you Dorie!

01:25:45 Stephen Sloan - Humane Leadership: Thank you, Dorie!

01:26:18 Mark Pedersen: Thanks you for the opportunity to share about the RVCOAD. Cassie shared this with the COAD in our meeting today, so I am going to exit - thank you!

01:26:46 Stephen Sloan - Humane Leadership: Thank you, Mark!

01:34:41 Connie Wilkerson - RVCOG: So sorry I need to leave for another meeting.

01:34:44 Stephen Sloan - Humane Leadership: What are the open questions that remain?
What is your organization doing to help the community with prevention and preparedness?

01:35:00 Kathy Bryon: Great presentation Cassie, thank you!

01:35:09 John Russell; FEMA CPCB: I too need to leave. Thanks everyone. Great conversation and presentations!

01:35:41 Dave Dotterer: Sorry, I also need to work on another issue so I need to drop off.

01:55:01 Holly Powers: <https://www.ready.gov/kids>

01:57:17 Erica-Coalicion Fortaleza: Could that FEMA case manager funds go towards preparedness work? I forgot the scope

02:02:21 Cassie - Disaster Registry: Thank you for making space for the Disaster Registry and for the work you are doing om R3B. Please add me to your distribution list and invites moving forward. crose@rvcog.org

02:02:58 Stephen Sloan - Humane Leadership: Will do, Cassie. Thank you for sharing your team's work.
