00:40:57 Stephen Sloan - Humane Leadership: She is normally invited

00:55:05 Brandon Thoms: I tell you this every time I see you and it is still not enough! Thank you Silvia for your incredible work to support our friends/family/neighbors/community!

00:55:24 Silvia Ceron: Teresa is with us now

00:55:42 Teresa Cisneros she/ella: Hi All! Sorry I'm late, I was in another conference.

00:56:07 Silvia Ceron: I'm humbled to work in such wonderful people in this community.

01:03:04 Teresa Cisneros she/ella: power and funding to Latinix community leaders and orgs.

01:10:07 Brandon Thoms: We are thankful that the president of our LTRG is a Latina Female and the voice that she brings to our efforts!

01:12:02 Blancaluz "Lucy" Brossard - JCCLTRG/PTS: ¡Gracias Brandon!

01:16:08 Kim Travis, OHCS: WOW, that is troubling and important to hear about predatory lending.

01:16:39 Tucker Teutsch — Remake Talent: Loving everything about this discussion. So good to talk about this with the perspective that 10 months has given us. Hopefully there are good, detailed notes!

01:27:27 Stephen Sloan - Humane Leadership: Reflections on what we've heard so far - hopeful things, visions, gaps, projects?

- How might specific projects around DEI inform and energize R3V's mission?

01:50:23 Bandana Shrestha, AARP Oregon: Jim per your request, 8 domains of livable and age-friendly communities - Housing, transportation, parks and outdoor spaces, health & community service, employment & volunteering, social participation, respect and inclusion, information & communication

01:50:31 Silvia Ceron: I'm sorry but I need to step away as I have another meeting to attend and need to prepare. Thank you for letting me part of this group!

01:50:55 Ellie Holty: If anyone would like to share ideas or notes with me, I will happily collect those

01:51:01 Ellie Holty: ellie@localinnovation.works
